

Warwick District Council – Restricted Drinking Zone

Section 13 of the Criminal Justice and Police Act 2001 introduced the power for local authorities to designate public places in which it will become an offence to drink after being requested not to do so by a police officer.

In a Designated Public Place Order (DPPO) area the powers of a police constable under Section 12 of the Act apply. The police will have the power to:

- require a person not to drink alcohol
- surrender any alcohol or alcohol containers in the person's possession.

The Police will only exercise section 12 powers in relation to “problem” drinking – this means where there is a threat to community safety.

Warwick District Council has previously made 2 DPPOs in the District. The first Order was made in June 2002 by the Regulatory Committee. This covered Leamington Town Centre and repealed the byelaws which designated the area a No Alcohol Zone. The Order came into effect on the 4 November 2002.

On 4 January 2006, the Regulatory Committee agreed to an extension the Restricted Drinking Zone to all areas of the District where there was evidence of alcohol related crime and disorder.

The tables below list the current Restricted Drinking Zone. Table 1 lists the areas covered by the 2002 DPPO. Table 2 lists the additional areas covered by the extension in 2006.

The locations were agreed based on significant numbers of incidents that were believed to alcohol-related including violence, drunkenness, disturbances, noise nuisance or nuisance youths.
