GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION – 25TH MAY 2018

All the information requested in the Application Form and Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form is required in order that Warwick District Council can assess your suitability for the post for which you are applying and to fulfil our legal duties to monitor recruitment practices.

You must complete this form for the recruitment process. If you do not your application may become null and void.

The personal data that you provide will be used for Warwick District Council's recruitment and selection process and the legal basis for this processing is obligation under employment.

Your Application Form will be kept in a recruitment file and only employees involved in shortlisting, interviewing and appointment will have access to this data. This could be Managers, HR and Departmental support employees. For senior appointments, Councillors and external assessors could be involved. The information will not be disclosed to anyone else outside of the Council.

If your application is unsuccessful, the application form and any other personal data submitted will be kept for a period of six months and then confidentially destroyed. If you are appointed, your personal information will be held on your personnel record for as long as you are employed plus seven years after leaving Warwick District Council's employment.

Because you have given your consent for the Council to process your data you can withdraw that consent whenever you wish.

You have the right to access your personal data and to complain if you think your data is being used incorrectly. You may also have other rights, such as to have your data corrected or erased. For full details on personal data rights please see the Council's website www.warwickdc.gov.uk

For the Data Controller and Data Protection Officer's contact details and further information please see the Council's Privacy Notice on the website www.warwickdc.gov.uk
