

Appendix 5 Residents Survey 2010

This appendix is an extract of the summary of findings from the Warwick District Council Residents Survey 2010, the full report will be available on the Council's website shortly. 1422 questionnaires returned in November and December 2010 from an original mailing to 5000 residents. Where relevant and in line with previous surveys, not applicable and don't knows have been excluded. The following results have been weighted by ward, gender, age, ethnicity, and household composition.

About the Respondents' Area

- Residents were asked to say what were the most important things making somewhere a good place to live. The top five in the District were the level of crime; health services; clean streets; parks and open spaces; and education provision.
